World Population Day

11 July 2023

World Population Day has been observed on 11 July every year since 1989. Since 1804 the global populations have increased from 1 billion to 8 billion, in the main due to advancements in medical care and in improved food production. In a world of 8 billion people, the focus of the day is to bring attention on the urgency and importance of population issues and to highlight the growing problems that come with a growing global population. Every 11 July, advocates from all over the globe call on leaders, institutions and policymakers to help make reproductive health and rights a reality for all.

Did You Know?

The UN projects that the world population will hit 10 billion by 2057.

Life expectancy has increased by 5 years in the last 20 years alone.
